

Filing appeal against Advance Ruling order

- Appeal can be filed only against an order of Advance Ruling issued by the Authority for Advance Ruling (AAR)
- Login to the GST portal and browse the order of AAR. Against the order details click on the File Appeal hyper link and remit the prescribed fee for filing appeal application.

Documents to be uploaded along with appeal application

- A template is provided to download and fill the details of appeal. After filling the appeal details, convert it to pdf and upload in the portal.
- If number of days delay in filing appeal is not zero as shown by the system, you should file a request for condonation of delay (COD).
- You can upload upto 4 documents supporting your appeal application.
- Preview the application for completeness and submit using DSC or EVC